AUGUST 2007

FROM THE EDITOR

Some of you might have been wondering when the next newsletter was going to make its appearance— the Palmers have been having computer issues— this appears to be turning into an annual occurrence (and every year I regret not keeping up to date with backing up data) So here is the newsletter you should have received in August. There will be one more newsletter this season (probably out in about a week or so) which will include the final gradings for the year, and any results outstanding from shows. Don't forget to send in any funny pictures/photos jokes etc for inclusion in the newsletter.

NT CHAMPIONSHIPS

It has only been a few weeks since the NT Show Jumping Championships but already it's getting lost in the mists of time. First of all I would like to thank Cassie Hall for once again taking up the mantle of judge, everyone who helped time-keep or pencil, especially Jenny's mum Chris who was up from SA. Our course designer was Guy Creighton. It is always a privilege to have an inter-state course designer and everyone enjoyed the challenge of his courses. Thanks again to Kylie and Lindsey for taking responsibility for tractor driving and trailer towing. Thanks to Karen Bird for arranging refreshments, and to anyone else who did their bit. Big thanks to Tracy who came up with the imaginative program for the two days of the championships. Well done Tracy, everyone got a fair go over the jumps.

It was nice to see a few new faces/horses out for the Championships. Ayrial Harburn came out for the first time on her dressage horse. Rian Smit was back in the saddle after a season plagued with illness, and Emily Palmer was out on her Dad's polocrosse horse. It was nice to see both Simmons girls out this time, along with Blane on Elvis.

Thank you to Saddleworld for sponsoring the Championships.

REPORT FROM THE KATHERINE SHOW

As usual a lot of the Darwin Show jumpers made the trek down to Katherine to take part in the jumping.

Gordon Cunnington was the course designer and judge for the show. He built some tricky courses with challenging tight turns and with a big treble in there for good measure. There was some good jumping for the spectators. A special mention needs to be made of Elizabeth Jacob and her horse Flash Henry. Wow. They were on fire and I don't think I have ever seen them jump so well—congratulations Elizabeth. I would like to welcome a new family to the jumping scene. They have just moved here from Queensland, and Grace, aged 10, gave everyone a run for their money. Her Dad Blane was riding Elvis, who made everyone else seem they were riding ponies.

The Ride and Drive was once again a very popular class, though this year the course Gordon Cunnington built presented more problems for the drivers than the riders— It was basically a barrel race! (and at least one barrel went flying) The spectators always get behind this class, with lots of cheering.

The Restricted Six Bar at the Katherine Show was not for the faint hearted. I thought last year was bad enough when Holly Tapp and Emily Palmer were fighting it out in the last round with three out of the six jumps at 1.15m This year in the final round the last jump went up to a whopping 1.35m. Neither of the last round finalists made it over the last jump, with Emily's pony making the very sensible decision (or so I thought) of running out before the second last fence. Holly's pony made a very gallant attempt to clear the second last then ran out when faced with the last! Unfortunately my nerves were shot and I wasn't really concentrating on the open six bar but as you can see the jumps were huge.

Winner of the Restricted Six Bar
Holly Tapp

ROYAL DARWIN SHOW 2007

The Royal Show is always pretty full on for the show jumpers with three days of jumping on offer. This year the course designer was Mark Tomkin from Rockhampton in Queensland. His courses were deceptively easy but incorporated some tricky distances with lots of horses knocking poles down on the same jumps. Our judge was Cassie Hall—thanks Cassie yet again for stepping up to fill the role, especially as both course designer and judge also appeared to be the course crew as well. Thank you to the members of the Norforce display team who stepped into help as well, and any of the parents/ members who did their bit.

It was nice to see all our regulars out there competing along with people who don't make it very often like Jessica Penderennis on Kuda and Steve Connolly who was riding Lizzy

Spencer's horse Manny. It was good to see Chloe Fien back in the saddle and even better to see Mr Ripley back out jumping after two years out of work. Well done Kylie for taking up the challenge. Taylor Gebert was out for the first time on her new horse Molly (and did very well with two wins at Prelim D—congratulations Taylor)

It was wonderful to see so many people looking smart in jackets and waistcoats. Even the horses were smarter, with a lot of colour co-ordination going on, even to the extent of having hooves to match.
